Our Parishes incorporate suburbs located on the traditional country of the Awabakal and Worimi peoples. We acknowledge their cultural heritage, beliefs and continuing relationship with the land, pay respect to their Elders past and present, and commit ourselves to work together for reconciliation and justice.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

2000 years ago God came among us as tiny baby born to a poor Middle-Eastern couple who washed Him and wrapped Him in a cloth. We have since wrapped this miraculous gift of God's self-giving in many layers of our own cultural traditions - trees, lights, tinsel, lavish gifts, sumptuous food and drink. Without these, I wonder how well we would value the gift Himself, for many in our world will not be able to celebrate this great event with any of these. Let's pray a spirit of peace and joy will enter every heart and soul, and we'll be inspired to reach out to everyone in need.

Fr John

FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

Dear friends in Christ,

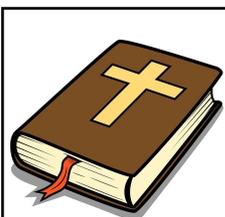

As we approach the end of another year, we look back with gratitude for the many blessings we have received (e.g. babies born, couples marrying, new people preparing & being received into the Church, successes in exams, sports and so on). We were also blessed to witness the recent ordination of Deacon Solomon Okovido to the priesthood of our Diocese. During this time, we may also be reflecting on the various things that have not gone so well: for instance, some of us will have suffered the loss of a loved one, experienced a serious illness or accident, been adversely affected by rising interest rates or the chronic shortage of housing across our nation, or are struggling to make sense of the terrible conflicts still occurring in the Ukraine and the Holy Land.

Through all this we are kept strong by our faith as we celebrate the wonderful miracle of the birth of Jesus, the Son of God. In a world of constant change and uncertainty, He is the one constant who keeps us united in hope and love. So, let's celebrate this great feast of Christmas with joy and thanksgiving, while also sparing a thought and a prayer for those less fortunate than ourselves, who for whatever reason are not able to share in our spirit of joy at this time.

I'd also like to take this opportunity to thank our Parish Office staff, and so many teams and volunteers in our pastoral region who have contributed their time and talents to support our parish administration, liturgies and outreach programs in various ways over the past year. In particular, I am thinking of our MCs, sacristans, musicians and singers, lectors, servers, Bereavement and RCIA teams, hospital and home visitation teams, those who take up and count our Mass collections, members of our Finance & Pastoral Councils, our Catholic Schools' staff, our supply priests and countless others.

Finally, on behalf of Fr Anil, Fr Anthony, Fr Bob, Fr Solomon, Dcn Kevin, and myself, may I wish you and all your loved ones a very blessed and happy Christmas, and a safe and prosperous New Year.

Love, Fr John

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS:

1 Sam 1:20-22, 24-28
1 Jn 3:1-2, 21-24
Luke 2:41-52

STOCKTON ADVENT DONATIONS

Christmas is a time of giving, receiving and thinking of others. As in past years, please dig deep and give generously to those less fortunate. Baskets in the foyer each Sunday of Advent need to be filled with non-perishable goods, gifts and toiletries. These will be distributed between Catholic Care, Refugee Hub and Seafarers' Mission. Thank you, in anticipation.

FAREWELL TO FR JOHN

Fr John's last weekend Mass will be at Sacred Heart Cathedral at 9.30am on Sunday 29 December 2024, followed by refreshments. To express our appreciation to Fr John for his ministry within the Inner City pastoral region, please consider offering a thankyou via a retiring collection at our churches this weekend 21/22 December. We wish Fr John every happiness in this next stage of his faith journey

COLUMBAN CALENDARS

A further delivery of Columban calendars has been received & they are available for $10 from the parish office.

BEE HAPPY

The community garden behind our Tighes Hill church recently took delivery of a hive of native stingless bees. These will help with pollination now that the varroa mite has reduced the number of local European honey bee. Due to the risk of vandalism, the hive is located in a neighbour's yard. The garden thanks all those who contributed to the fundraising appeal.

SIMBANG GABI AT SACRED HEART CATHEDRAL

In preparation for the Solemnity of the Lord's birth, Novena Masses are being celebrated at the Sacred Heart Cathedral at 7.30pm in the evenings of 15th December to 23rd December 2024.

The celebration of the Christmas Novena Masses, also known as Simbang Gabi to Filipinos, is a long tradition brought by the Spanish Friars in the Philippines in 1669. The Novena Masses are in honour of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Expectant Mother of God, and serve as a preparation for the commemoration of the Birth of Our Lord and Saviour. All are welcome!

RCIA TEAM—CITY PASTORAL REGION

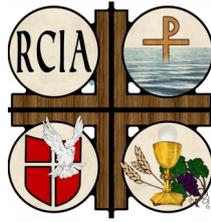

Dear friends,

As many of you may already be aware, we are currently forming an RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) Team for the parishes of our City Pastoral Region. I'm very grateful to those generous parishioners who have volunteered to be part of this team, and also Sr Louise Gannon rsj and the Worship & Prayer Team, in assisting us with formation of this wonderful ministry.

Saying this, it's important to recognize that all of us, as an intrinsic part of our Christian calling, have a role in the work of evangelisation (including welcoming & accompanying) of anyone interested in joining our Catholic faith. It can be very inspiring to hear the stories of those who are seeking to build a relationship with the Lord and His people through this process.

So, I invite you to let me know if you'd like to volunteer to be a companion (ie. welcome and sit with one of these people at Sunday Mass) to accompany them on their journey. Instruction will be provided for you if you are able to help in this way. In doing this, you will be making a very valuable and practical contribution to building-up the Kingdom of God in our region. To register your interest, please forward your name and a contact number/email to our Parish Office at: newcparish@mn.catholic.org.au or telephone on (02) 49791101.

Love, Fr John

JOB OPPORTUNITIES AT THE DIOCESE

Are you enthusiastic, passionate and looking for a career change? You should join our new Mission & Evangelisation team. Formally known as Pastoral Ministries, the team's new permanent, full-time roles offer the chance to shape and have a meaningful impact across our parishes and faith communities.

Mission and Evangelisation Partner - Youth Ministry: Bring a creative and strategic focus to a new and bespoke strategy for the engagement of young people in the life and mission of the local Church. This is a chance for a passionate leader to animate an inspired vision in fertile ground with significant support from a broader team.

Mission and Evangelisation Partner - Worship: Be part of an outward-looking, inter-connected and collaborative group who will provide significant leadership to all who seek advice and formation in this space.

To apply, find these vacancies advertised on the Diocese website under Careers, Diocese positions vacant:

www.mn.catholic.org.au/about/careers/positions

We encourage anyone across the Diocese who is interested and meets the criteria to apply.

For further information, please contact Director of Mission & Evangelisation James Camden:

TODAY'S LITURGY

Entrance Antiphon: Cf Isaiah 45:8

Drop down dew from above, you heavens,
and let the clouds rain down the Just One;
let the earth be opened and bring forth a Saviour.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Micah 5:1-4

Out of you will be born the one who is to rule over Israel.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 79:2-3. 15-16. 18-19. R. v.4

(R.) Lord, make us turn to you;
let us see your face and we shall be saved.

1. O Shepherd of Israel, hear us, shine forth from your cherubim throne.
O Lord, rouse up your might,
O Lord, come to our help. (R.)
2. God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted. (R.)
3. May your hand be on the man you have chosen, the man you have given your strength.
And we shall never forsake you again:
give us life that we may call upon your name. (R.)

Second Reading: Hebrews 10:5-10

I am coming to do your will.

Gospel Acclamation: Luke 1:38

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the servant of the Lord:
may his will for me be done.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 1:39-45

Why should it happen that I am honoured with a visit from the mother of my Lord?

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Memorial Acclamation:

Save us, savior of the world for by your cross and resurrection, you have set us free.

Communion Antiphon: Isaiah 7:14

Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a son;
and his name will be called Emmanuel.
