Where are they?

'The other nine, where are they?' asked Jesus. Why would the other nine not have come back to give thanks? It is insufficient to say that the miraculous healing these men experienced changed their lives. Being healed of this disease meant so much to them: they could return to their families; they could return to work; they could touch another person; they could walk among other people; they could join in prayer at the synagogue. As they hurried back toward town they must have been overwhelmed by the possibilities and opportunities that lay before them. But they neglected to acknowledge the source of their great joy!

FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

Dear Parish Family,

As a parish we farewell Margaret Cox from our office this week, after 31 years of service and dedication to the life of our parish and its mission. Transitioning through the various stages of our career or life can be challenging as well as rewarding. Looking back, Marg, I am sure, is grateful to the wonderful people that she has worked with and those she has served in her capacity as Admin support for the parish. Marg continues in her roles as a volunteer, especially as part of the funeral ministry team, so you will meet her in lots of places within the parish. Marg has faced challenges with us as a church, and I know the priests, and particularly the parish priests, have appreciated her willingness to help in whatever way the role has demanded of her.

Farewells are always bittersweet – hard to say ‘see ya’, whilst looking forward to the next chapter with joy or excitement. As a church we never say ‘goodbye’ - just ‘till we meet again’. On behalf of the parish, all of you, I wish Marg the very best in her retirement and express my gratitude for all her work in helping keep things heading in the right direction.

As a parish we are now are looking for a suitably qualified replacement in the parish office. It carries the front of house for the parish, as well as the Microsoft office suite of packages. The successful applicant would need some experience with an accounting package or packages - Xero preferred, but not essential - and should know something about databases. We work mostly electronically, although are still required to keep our baptism, confirmation, marriage and death registers manually. Our registers and records are exciting.

The office, as you know, is now found on site at the Cathedral and we offer parking. It is one of the most attractive jobs going! If you know someone, direct them through ‘Seek’ to apply, or they can contact the office and the staff will send the link for them to apply. It is a full-time position and, given the nature of parish life, we can’t offer a flexible working arrangement, unfortunately. The successful applicant will have the opportunity to work with a most amazing group of people!! I am looking forward to interviewing and finding our new team member.

 The first part of our Parish Assembly is fast approaching, so make sure you have 1 November in your diaries – 10am till 3.00pm. It will be the first part of our pastoral planning and direction setting process.

 This weekend after the 9.30am Mass (12 October), there will be the shared meal and conversation with those from the Filipino community, who will also have join them members of the Mauritian and Japanese communities who have been claimed as honorary Filipino.  Then on 19 October I am looking forward to meeting with members of the Indian community for a meal and conversation. Remembering it is a shared meal: you bring, and the priests share LOL

Greg, Parish Priest.

FROM MARGARET COX

Thank you, it’s not goodbye, it’s ‘see ya round’.

As I leave the workplace after 30 years, I am grateful for the opportunity to have engaged with so many wonderful people. It has helped me evolve into a better version of myself. Thank you for what you have brought to my life. I am humbled and enormously grateful. I will miss your unique outlook on life, your positivity, and the way you live your faith in practical ways. You will all be in my prayers and when I think of you, it will be with a smile. Much love, Marg.

SAFEGUARDING

During school holidays, there may be more opportunities for children playing games online, supervised and unsupervised.

Gaming benefits. Gaming can be a way to:

- have fun, be entertained, relax and reduce stress, connect with others
- keep the mind active and develop creativity, strengthen decision making and strategic skills
- view general school education programs, competitive eSports and possible workplace training (eg. flight simulations).

Gaming risks. Risks include:

- cyberbullying (for example threats, verbal abuse, ganging up, exclusion)
- inappropriate language, age-inappropriate content, or access to pornography
- unwanted contact from others, including 'grooming' by sexual predators
- themes or elements that may encourage young people to gamble now or later
- giving out too much personal data and spending too much time online.

Regulate online time. If gaming is balanced with other activities and sleep, there is usually no need for concern. If gaming starts to have negative impacts on your child or your family, parents and carers may need to regulate their time online. Gaming disorder has now been recognised by World Health Organization as a mental health condition and there are practitioners who specialise in internet overuse problems.

NOVEMBER MEMORIAL MASSES

The month of November is a sacred time in our Church's year, when we pause to remember and pray for all who have died.

In a special way, we will gather for a Memorial Mass on Friday 31 October at 6:00pm in Sacred Heart Cathedral. At this Mass we will honour parishioners, family members, and friends who have died during the past year, and we will also remember all who are at rest in our Sacred Heart Columbarium. Together we give thanks for the gift of their lives, commend them to the mercy of God, and pray for comfort and hope for those who grieve their loss.

After Mass, please join us for a liturgy of remembrance in the columbarium, after which light refreshments will be served — a chance to share memories, offer support, and be together as a parish community.

All parishioners and friends are warmly invited to join us in this prayer of remembrance. As we recall our loved ones by name, we are reminded that they remain part of the communion of saints, held forever in God's embrace.

"I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me will live, even though they die." (John 11:25)
